

devcom is the official game developer event of gamescom and Europe's biggest game developer communitydriven industry conference.

Offering additional content and events throughout the year, devcom constantly emphasizes its core values of diversity, inclusion and sustainability.

devcom 365 is your year-round experience.

In addition to devcom Developer Conference, we offer even more devcom events and continuously produce original content throughout the year.

devcom Summits

The devcom Summits are 1- to 2-day online events, featuring talks, panels, workshops, interviews, and gameplay sessions, delivered by renowned speakers and lecturers from the global games industry. Each summit is dedicated to a specific topic of game development.

devcom Pitch it!

This is our unique matchmaking event that helps game projects find funding. With several editions around the year, devcom Pitch it! is the perfect event platform for developers, publishers, investors and distributors to find matching partners faster and on-target.

devcom Twitch Shows

From games industry business news to live discussions or play-with-the-dev sessions: the devcom Twitch channel continuously provides first-class content formats and also serves as a hub for the devcom community to come together.

devcom Podcast

Hosted by Lars Janssen, VP, Worldwide Studios & Talent at Koch Media / Deep Silver, the devcom Podcast airs on a monthly basis on multiple audio platforms. Each episode features inter-views or fireside chats with renowned guests from the global games industry
